

CHICAGO GUIDE®

You can't be everywhere. Here's where you should be.

FREEBIES OF THE WEEK

film LIVING FOR 32

This documentary about Colin Goddard, a survivor of the Virginia Tech massacre who was shot four times, makes its local debut at the Chicago Peace on Earth Film Festival after premiering last month at Sundance; a Q&A with director Kevin Breslin and Goddard follows the 40-minute film. Consider this a personal to-do, Mayor-elect Emanuel, as you prepare to lead our city out of its recent history of violence.

GO: Living for 32 is part of the Peace On Earth Film Festival that runs 2/25 – 2/27. Doors open at 5:45; Living screens at approximately 7:15 2/25. Claudia Cassidy Theater, Chicago Cultural Center, 78 E Washington. CPFF runs 2/25–27; full schedule: peaceonearthfilmfestival.org

