

STUDENT VOICES FOR PEACE SHOWCASE

An in-house education and cultural program of the 2017 Peace On Earth Film Festival
... to reduce violence, by planting seeds of compassion, tolerance and understanding

Specially selected films from the Ninth Annual Peace On Earth Film Festival will be presented along with interactive discussion with the student audience. *

PROGRAM DETAILS:

- Thursday, March 9, 2017 –
  - Middle School - 9:30 to 11:30 am
  - Free to all schools with students in grades 7th – 8th
  - High School – 12:00 to 2:00 pm
  - Free to all schools with students in grades 9th - 12th
- Seating is limited – reservations are required
- One reservation per school
- Maximum group size allowed is 40 and must include: students, teachers & chaperones (as required by CPS)

* Films are reviewed and assessed by our Teacher Advisory Panel, for content and grade-level placement.

LOCATION: Chicago Cultural Center,
78 E. Washington Street, Chicago, IL
Claudia Cassidy Theater – Second floor - north

MAKE YOUR SCHOOLS RESERVATION TODAY
For reservations call: 773.273.1598 -- nickpeacefilms@aol.com

---

The Department of Cultural Affairs and Special Events is co-presenting the screenings for the Student Voices for Peace program.

FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

---

The films were great and made me think of the situations people go through that we never even thought about. Now we can make a change.

Yuri, Grade 12, John Hancock HS

We all need to feel empathy. Watching that film made me think twice about everything ... you don't know what you have until you lose it.

Annah, Grade 10, Universal Islamic HS

This film made me cry and this is really inspiring to make a difference in life and the treatment of one another.

Cynthia, Grade 10, Curie Metro HS

... the program was truly education at its best: interesting, inspiring, meaningful, and conducive toward action.

Brad Parker, National Board Certified Teacher

This program gave our students a chance to be heard... My students could not wait to share their experiences with peers and parents.

Jennifer DeBruin, Teacher, Percy Julian Middle School, Oak Park

What a great opportunity for our students. Thank you so much!

Rachel Greiman, Teacher, School of Leadership