

Chicago Tribune

FRIDAY, February 25, 2011

Movies with a message

Fresh from Sundance, director Kevin Breslin comes to Chicago with his documentary "Living for 32," an intimate account by Colin Goddard about surviving the 2007 Virginia Tech shootings. The film screens Friday (with a Q&A with Goddard afterwards) as part of the weekend-long Peace on Earth Film Festival at the Chicago Cultural Center's Claudia Cassidy Theater. For more info and a full schedule of films, go to peaceonearthfilmfestival.org.

BY NINA METZ, TRIBUNE REPORTER

Paper and On Line